

“A Good Man is Hard to Find” Essay Prompt

The short story “A Good Man is Hard to Find” by Flannery O’Conner is a controversial short story written in 1953. The content is bold and can be interpreted in many different ways. There are a number of themes attributed to the narrative. Choose one theme of interest and create a strong analytical essay explaining how this theme is relevant. Make sure that you have three quality points of interest.