

It's a Wonderful Life Essay

- George has a revelation about his importance during his life. Have you ever had a revelation that changed your way of thinking? If so, how did it change your life in similar ways that it did George? Make sure that you relate your life directly to moments of the film.
- What social or human allegorical representation does the town (Bedford Falls) have in the film?
- What elements of life does this film champion? Use symbols within the film to defend your stance.