

Name: _____

Three-Act Structure

Title of Movie: Star Wars - A New HOpe

ACT ONE

Inciting Incident Uncle Owen purchases the escaped droids, C-3P0 and R2D2... and R2D2 promptly escapes, searching for Obi-Wan Kenobi.	Plot Point/Second Thought: We meet Obi-Wan and the rebellion. Luke is excited to hear about the rebellion.	Climax of Act One When Storm Troopers kill Luke's aunt and uncle, he has nothing to stay on Tatooine for. So Luke joins Obi-Wan and begins his journey.
--	---	--

ACT TWO

Obstacle 1, (2) Getting off of Tatooine - we meet Han Solo.	Midpoint Twist Deathstar is introduced and planet is blown up. Millenium Falcun taken on Deathstar and we find Princess Leah on the Deathstar.	Disaster/Crisis Luke and Han save Leah, but end up in the dumpster where they await their death. Obi-Wan is killed by Darth Vader.	Climax of Act Two After Obi-Wan is killed, Luke, Leah and Han Solo have to escape the Deathstar.
--	---	---	---

ACT THREE

Descending Action The plans to the Deathstar show a weakness and can be defeated.	Conflict/Wrap Up Han Solo leaves, Luke is disappointed.	End Luke is the last fighter to destroy the Deathstar. Just as we think he is about to shot by Darth Vader, Han Solo appears to save Luke. Luke is able to drop the bomb and destroys the Deathstar. Rebellion has won.
---	---	---

PROTAGONIST:

What was our protagonist like at the beginning? Luke was sad to be a farmer and wants to leave the farm to be a fighter like his father	How did they change over the course of the movie? Luke saves the rebellion and destroys the Deathstar. He is a fighter pilot like his father.
--	--

SUPPORTING CHARACTERS:

List supporting characters: Han Solo - only cared about himself and money.	Why were they important to our movie plot? In the end, he returns to help Luke and eventually save the Rebellion, therefore defeating the Deathstar.
---	---

ANTAGONIST:

List Antagonist character(s): Darth Vader	How did they help propel the story? He is so evil, you can see he has no soul and serves the emporer.
--	--