

The Thin Red Line Essay

- ❑ Describe the juxtaposition between nature and men's destructiveness in war.
- ❑ Examine the philosophical relationship between man, war and God.
- ❑ Choose three characters and explain their role in the film by examining their needs, beliefs, and give circumstances. You need one unifying element that connects these three points of interest.
- ❑ What is the symbolic significance of taking over Guadalcanal in the way it relates to characters of your choice?
- ❑ Explain how the internal chaos of war intertwines with the soldiers' search to come to terms with God, morals, death and love (Choose 3).